Mike Snider to Appear at Foundation Annual Meeting

The 23rd annual meeting of the East Central Tech Foundation will be held in the Charles Harris Learning Center on the Ben Hill-Irwin Campus on Tuesday, November the 18th. This year's entertainment will be national banjo champion, Mike Snider. Mike worked his way into people's hearts through hundreds of television appearances on TNN's Nashville Now, his seven-year stay in the cornfield on the syndicated television show "Hee Haw," and entertaining crowds for seven years at Nashville's Opryland Theme Park.

Mike's popularity ultimately garnered him a membership into country music's the Grand Ole Opry. A Grand Ole Opry member since 1990, Mike continues to draw laughter and entertain crowds with his music and humor. Mike has assembled a band of musicians who, also, have the passion to play music and entertain people. Mike's show is exciting, fun, easy-going, and from his heart.

According to Howard Jordan, Executive Director of Advancement and Public Relations, “We had Mike at one of our meetings about ten years ago and he was a tremendous success. We have had many requests to bring him back.”

The occasion will feature a prime rib meal and several awards will be presented to outstanding donors. For more information and tickets contact Mona Paulk at 229-468-2102. Seating is limited.
